United States. Army.

6th General Hospital.

Records, 1917-18, 1939-46.

9 manuscript boxes

Processed: December 1996
By: Abigail Schoolman

This collection comprises records of the MGH military hospital unit, primarily during World War II. The World War II records include personnel files, diaries of the commanding officer Frederic A. Washburn, annual reports, financial and historical information, and correspondence. There are also some records from World War I (when the unit was called U.S. Army Base Hospital #6), including a personnel card file and a history of the unit during the war. See also Frederic A. Washburn, Papers, n.d., 1905-49.
