Processed: 2016

By: Jeanne Casey

Richard Sylvester Hawkes (1906-1983) graduated Harvard Medical School, class of 1931. He married Ellice Almeda Drew (1903-1984) in April, 1932. She was the head nurse of MGH wards 22 and 26 at the time and also the business manager for the MGH Nurses Alumni Assoc. The newlyweds resided at 81 Cedar St., Boston. The couple moved to Portland, ME in 1933, where Dr. Hawkes set up a private practice in Internal Medicine. They had two children – Stephen Edgar (1939-2000) and Carolyn M (b. 1939).

Although the note attached to the collection (see below) states that the photos were for use in the Harvard Aesculapiad, this is not the case. The yearbook volumes for this time period were reviewed, and none of the photos were found to be included.

Photographs in this collection include individual physician photographs, group photographs, and photographs of the MGH campus. A list of all physicians identified is appended to the list of photographs. The identity of the photographer or photographers is unknown but there is one group photo identifying Dr. Theodore Badger behind the camera.
