Dr. Peter Slavin (PS) has served as the president of Massachusetts General Hospital (MGH) since 2003. He has also been the chairman and CEO of the Massachusetts General Physicians Organization (MGPO), which supports 1,700 physician members. From 1997 to 1999, PS was the president of Barnes-Jewish Hospital in St. Louis, Mo.

PS earned his MD from Harvard Medical School in 1984 and his MBA from Harvard Business School in 1990. He completed his training in internal medicine at the MGH, where he served as senior vice president and chief medical officer from 1994-1997.

Contents Note

The collection consists of press clippings, photographs, DVDs, awards, and miscellaneous pieces of correspondence removed from files in the MGH President's Office in Bulfinch 240. Pictures of PS posing with visitors or at special events are included. The earliest pictures show PS as a grade school student in the 1960s.

The materials have been organized into four series: Biographical Materials; Photographs; DVDs; and MGH Information (General).

Processing Note

Original binders containing the clippings and pictures were discarded, and the contents were re-housed in acid-neutral folders. Mylar sleeves were used to protect some materials, and binder clips and paper clips were removed. All materials were re-housed in acid-neutral boxes.
